STRIKE PEAK REACHED WITH 35 CITIES HIT

LEADERS PREPARE FOR FINISH FIGHT IN BIG STRUGGLE

Thirty Five Cities Are Affected With Thousands Out.

YARDMEN AFFECTED Little Gains Expected From Now On By Strikers.

Chicago, April 10.—The country's railroad strike today resolved itself
to a coming to grips in what may be a long drawn out test of strength, with both sides apparently prepared to make a finish fight out of it.

With some 35 cities affected, and
from 15,000 to 50,000 men out—take your choice between the estimates of the railroad and the strike leaders—it was believed that the trouble will not
spread further to any great extent,
and that the walkout except in isolated
stances, will not affect any class of
railroad workers other than switchmen
and yardmen.

The railroad officials and their allies, the brotherhood chiefs, continued
to put forth claims that the strike is rapidly being broken, and that the men
are tucking back to work, while the strike leaders stoutly maintained their claim that the walkout is gaining
strength and new adherents hourly,
and that their newly formed union, the Yardmen's Association of America, has gained a firm foothold in practically
all of the communities where strikes
have occurred.

AUTO BANDITS GET BIG HAUL IN BOLD COUP ON SATURDAY

Perpetrating a bold daylight robbery, three automobile bandits held
up the Cashier and Assistant Cashier
of the West Carrollton bank, forced several patrons to hold up their
hands and made away with currency
estimated at $30,000 at 11 o'clock Saturday morning.

The three men drove up to the bank in a Hudson automobile with a colored driver. While the driver remained without, the three men entered
and with drawn revolvers forced Cashier Dean and his assistant to hold up their hands. Leaving the bank they went north from West Carrollton, and have as yet frustrated the efforts of police all over this section
of the state to catch them.

Cashier M. L. Wolf of the Citizen's National Bank in this city was notified by telephone immediately
after the sensational robbery and he notified Chief of Police M. E. Graham. While it will be impossible to state the exact amount taken until
a check has been made on the money
in hand tonight, estimates placed it
at $30,000 Saturday afternoon.

The bank is a new one, only having been in operation about a year.

HARVEY COATES AND HUGH M'FADDEN BUY MULLEN BARBER SHOP

By a deal completed Friday, Harvey Coates, manager of the barber
shop of the Mullen and Jenkins Company, barber shop, and wholesale
tobacco and Hugh M'Fadden, for a number of years connected with the Ed Wood barber shop, has purchased the Mullen barber shop and will take possession of it early next week.

Included in the sale was stock of cigars and tobacco on hand in the store. The Mullen and Jenkins Co.,
consisting of Rufus Mullen and Street Jenkins; will retain the wholesale tobacco line and in the future will operate it exclusively, removing soon to a new location.

The changes in the personnel of
the barber shop began when the
wholesale tobacco business which is operated by Mr. Mullen in connection with his barber shop grew to such an extent that he took in Mr. Jenkins as partner, and turned over the management of the barber shop to Mr.
Coates. Mr. Coates has been connected with the Rufus Mullen shop for 12 years. Mr. M'Fadden, partner in the new concern, has bartered there for a number of years, and for a number of years recently has been at the Ed
Wood shop. Both are among the best known barbers in the city.

LOCAL WORKERS NOT LIKELY TO STRIKE, REPORT

Dayton Yardmen Walk
Out On Friday
Evening.

With railroad yard switchmen walking out all over the country, there is no strike of the yard men here and
no indications of one yet.

Local switchmen interviewed Saturday said that they will not walk out
unless they receive orders from the headquarters of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, to which organization they belong. They were not anticipating such orders Saturday.

Yard men, employed in all yards in Dayton, walked out Friday night and Saturday every yard in Dayton was tied up. A local man who is employed by the Baltimore & Ohio as switchman
said Saturday that the strike was general. He said that the switchmen were poorly paid and that they had just become aroused to their situation. He stated further that the strike would
tie up both freight and passenger service unless the roads secured scabs
enough to keep the yards busy.

It was stated here that the Dayton
switchmen walked out of their own accord without orders from the general
headquarters of the Brotherhood. Local switchmen, it was stated, would not take such a drastic action, without
orders from their headquarters.

"The fellow who started this strike
was a scab strike breaker in the first place", said one local switchman Saturday. He went to Chicago as a scab and later got job as a switchman. When he got fired he attempted to call this strike by organizing a new union of his own, separate from the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen which includes all trainmen. The new union
is supposed to include only yard men.
He got a lot of listeners like these I.
W. W. speakers do, and the results is that a lot of switchmen have walked out all over the country. We have not received any orders from our headquarters yet," he continued, "and there will not be any strike here until we do."

The switchmen swing a big stick
over the operation of the roads as they make up all the trains in the
yards, both freight and passenger.
Trainmen, it is said, or that is the brakemen who operate the trains, will not do the yard work. For this reason
the switchmen's strike can tie
up practically the entire operation of the roads.

XENIA THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY WILL LOCATE IN ST. LOUIS DURING SUMMER IS THE PLAN

The Xenia Theological Seminary
will be relocated in St. Louis.
Definite plans concerning the removal will be made at a meeting of the Board of Managers to be held in Xenia, April 28.

The school will be in its new location for the opening of the next fall semester.
Dr. Joseph Kyle, president of the seminary who has just returned home after spending several weeks in the west, announced that the relocation commission of ten men, which includes the presidents of the three western colleges maintained by the United Presbyterian church, Monmouth, Tarkio, and Cooper Memorial
had decided upon the St. Louis site.
Approval of the Board of Managers and of the Synod is yet to be obtained, but this is a formality, and after sixty-five years in Xenia, the seminary will find a new home in the great middle west, within the coming summer months.

The church has an option on property in St. Louis, close to the University of St. Louis, which is now occupied by a girls' school, and will be released for that purpose willing the United Presbyterian church does not soon decide to act
upon the option which it holds to buy the site for something like $85,- 000.

Adjoining the proposed site are three acres which will be donated to the church. The buildings are new and modern. They are owned by a private individual.
For some time, decision on the
part of the relocation commission
wavered between a site in Denver
and that in St. Louis which was finally accepted. There was a strong effort made to secure the seminary
for Denver, but St. Louis had the London, April 10.—Another ambassa-

and Japanese ambassadors attend-

Premier Lloyd George departed immediately afterward for Sanremo,

The French reply to the British
note of Thursday, which is now in the hands of the foreign office is said to be pacific, but contains no suggestion
for modifying the French military
measures that were taken on the Rhine.
The French reply is expected to express the belief that the allies will accept the French attitude as to the necessity for military action. The communication emphatically reaffirms
that the "breach of the treaty by Germany" warranted military action.

Triest, April 10.—The general

Work was resumed yesterday morn-

NUN, FORMER XENIAN DIES FROM ACCIDENT

Sister Mary Blanche McCormick,
former Xenia woman, and sister-in-
law of Mrs. J. T. McCormick of Center street, died Friday in a hospital
in Indianapolis, from injuries received in an accident twenty minutes
earlier. The communication received by Xenia relatives did not give details of the accident, but it is supposed to have been an automobile collision. Sister Mary Blanche was a teacher in Holy Rosary parochial
school in the suburbs of Indianapolis,
and was supposed to have been on her
way to school when the accident occurred.

Sister Mary Blanche was born in Cincinnati but spent her childhood in Xenia. She entered the Order of the Sisters of Providence 36 years ago.
Funeral services for her were to be held Saturday at the Mother House
of her order at St. Mary's of the Springs, near Terre Haute, Ind. Her
nephews Leo and Joseph McCormick
of Xenia attended the funeral.

RELEASED BUT IS RETURNED TO JAIL

William Brown, colored, released
from the work house two weeks ago
at the completion of his sentence, was returned to that institution Saturday
morning on a new charge.

Brown was arrested on a charge of stealing four razors and a revolver
from George F. Roundtree, colored,
and was given a fine of $50 and
costs and sentenced to 30 days in the work house by Police Judge E. Dawson Smith Saturday morning. Brown was arrested for disorderly conduct
before and had just worked out a 30 day sentence and a $25 fine two weeks ago.

AMBASSADOR NOW ON WAY TO U.S.

London, April 10.—Sir Auckland Geddes, the new British ambassador to the United States, departed for Washington today. He was accompanied by Lady Geddes. Among those who gathered at the Euston
railroad station to say farewell before the ambassador left for Liverpool were John W. Davis, the American ambassador to Great Britain and
A. Bonar Law, government leader in the house of commons.

GOVERNMENT MAY INTERVENE INTO RAILWAY STRIKE

Examination Of Laws Under Which it Can Proceed is Made.

EXPECT BREAK SOON

Officials Skeptical Concerning Any Federal Action.

Washington, April 10.—The government will intervene in the unauthorized railroad strikes if they continue and it is shown that they are seriously interfering with interstate
transportation, it was stated today.
An examination of the laws under
which the government might proceed
is being made and a report will be submitted to President Wilson, it was learned.

President Wilson has completed the railroad labor board but announcement is withheld pending acceptance
by several members.

Officials here, however, expressed
an opinion that 48 hours would show
the strike weakened to such an extent that government intervention
would not be necessary. It was plain that there was a disposition on the part of officials to forestall government action as long as possible.

Washington, April 10.—President
Wilson was today expected to name
the members of the railway labor
board created by the Cummins-Esch
bill. This is the only governmental step that appeared likely for the present in connection with the new nation wide strike of railway workers. Attorney General Palmer is expected to return to Washington late
today and he will find awaiting him
a number of appeals from various groups urging that he take steps to check the strike. Judge C. B. Ames,
assistant attorney general, said no
course of action had been planned
and there was a general impression
that the government would not intervene at this time. It was pointed out that the strike was largely conducted by individual groups and that injunction proceedings would be most difficult.

Senator Cummins, chairman of the interstate commerce committee of the senate, is preparing to open an investigation of the strike on Tuesday.

WILL ORGANIZE THE SCHOOLS FOR DRIVE FOR NEW HI SCHOOLS

A thorough organization of every public school in the city, and the Mothers' Circles, for the campaign to put across the $550,000 bond issue for the two new high schools
will be undertaken by the Board of Education.

All civic organizations will also be asked to co-operate in the campaign.
"We want to put the facts before
the public so that the people can judge for themselves. We urge a thorough investigation in an unbiased way. We want every possible question answered. We want the people to have every opportunity to understand everything about the proposition clearly," said J. W. Sant-
myer, president of the school board,
Saturday.

Members of the board of education
will be chairman for the schools and
others' circles in the campaign
which will take place ten days before the election. Mr. Kany will be chairman at Lincoln school; Mr. Little at Central school; Mr. LeSouer,
McKinley school, and Mr. Spahr
Spring Hill and Orient Hill.

DANGER OF FORCED WALKOUT THREATENS COMPLETE PARALYSIS

Everything Depends On Action Taken By Convention of
Railway Employees, Department of A. F. O. L.
In Kansas City Monday.

WILL EITHER APPROVE OR CONDEMN WALKOUT

Eight of the 16 Organizations Will Vote for General
Walkout; By Terms of Agreement Majority
Can Decide Entire Question.

Washington, April 10.—Confidential information received
here today indicates danger of a forced strike extending to
every railroad trade and craft
and completely tying up every
railroad system in the nation.
Notwithstanding efforts of the railroad union chiefs to prevent it.

Everything depends on the action taken by the convention of the railway employees, department of the American Federation of Labor, which opens in Kansas City next Monday, made

up of delegates from the switch-
men's union of North America;
the Brotherhood of Railway
Clerks, the six shop craft unions.

The convention will make either a declaration against the
present strike and take disciplinary measures against the
members who are precipitating
or approve it.

By the terms of the pact entered
into the 16 organizations in the railway union alliance, if a majority of the convention votes to strike, the remaining organizations are bound to act in concert.

The eight unions which will take part in the Kansas City convention
have strike votes already to put into effect. If they decide to strike, they need only one other organization to join them to force a general strike.
The radicals, it was learned today,
are counting on either the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way
Employees and Railroad Shop Laborers or the Order of Railway Signal-
men to join the eight in strike action. If to eight strike without majority support in the alliance, they will be outlawed by the other railroad organizations and it is not believed they are willing to incur this.

The leaders will try to impress upon the convention the futility of a general strike without sufficient funds to carry it on. The railroad
alliance is trying to raise an immense defence fund and the program to be submitted to the Kansas City convention will suggest an assessment of $1 per month per member for such a fund.

RAIL SITUATION IN NEW YORK IS STILL CRITICAL

Tie Up On Steam Roads
Fairly Complete
Saturday.

SUBWAY AFFECTED

Only Perishable Freight
Moving; Disorders Are Reported.

New York, April 10.—While the
nation wide outlaw strike among railroad workers was apparently receding slightly in other parts of the country, it held New York tightly in its grip today. The tie up on the steam roads was fairly complete.
No freight except perishable food
was moving. Adding to the confusion the employees of the Hudson
tubes, the subway system under the Hudson river, joined the strike at 5
o'clock this morning and all traffic
immediately ceased.

Tens of thousands of commuters
who daily use the tubes to reach the business section of New York, were compelled to use the railway ferry boats.

Only a few of these were running
and the congestion and confusion became terrific. On both the Jersey
side and the New York side the police reserves had to be called out to maintain order. No estimates of the number of men out in New York and environs. The tube men are a part of the Brotherhood of Railway Train-
men. Their demand increases in wages of from 15 to 33 1-3 per cent. Every road entering New York and Jersey City is affected by the walkout. William J. Walsh, an assistant to W. G.
Lee, head of the trainmen, is here
endeavoring to persuade the strikers
to return to work. He was hopeful
today that the men could be made to
"see the light" and return to work
but road officials were pessimistic.

Should the strike continue even a few days New York's food supply
will be badly depleted and the city
facing a serious famine. Already thousands of cars of foodstuffs destined for New York have been held up at outside points because of the local strikes.

HUNDREDS ON STRIKE IN COLUMBUS FEAR MORE WILL LEAVE

Columbus, O., April 10.—With about 100 Norfolk and Western railway switchmen on strike here this morning, prediction was made by J.
P. Moore, terminal trainmaster, that trainmen employed on other roads
here will walk out.

A meeting of all trainmen and
switchmen working in local railroad
yards will, take place tonight, with consideration will be given to "a re-
traction of demands made on members by grand lodge officers in connection with the strike in Chicago,
and to consider questions pertaining
to a legal call of a strike."

Macon, Ga., April 10.—Attorney General Palmer was forced to cancel his speaking engagement at Way-
cross because of an attack of acute

CLEVELAND MENACED BY GENERAL STRIKE OF 3,000 WORKERS

Cleveland, O., April 10.—Yard employes of nine railroads operating in this city, numbering about 3,000 men,
will strike this afternoon at 2 o'clock
unless wage demands which have
been submitted to the local officials,
are acted upon favorably. The demands are similar to those made in
other cities.

Final action on whether passenger
and mail service men should participate in the strike immediately was delayed today pending further discussion.

FRAUD AND PERJURY COMMITTED IN DIVORCE OF ACTRESS, CHARGED

Reno, Nev., April 10.—Fraud and perjury were committed in the obtaining by Mary Pickford of a divorce
from Owen Moore at Minden, Nevada, it was charged today by Attorney General Leonard B. Fowler, of Nevada.

He announced that the complaint
in which the state will make efforts
to have the decree set aside will allege that the court which granted
the divorce had no jurisdiction "because the plaintiff had no residence
and the defendant was brought into Nevada as a matter of collusion."

"Fraud and perjury have been committed," said Mr. Fowler. "I am not prepared to say whether criminal action will be brought. My interest lies in getting the decree set aside, because the dignity of the state of Nevada is at stake."

"The contemplated action, Mr. Fowler said, will be filed next week at Minden.

FREINGT TIE UP IN DETROIT IS COMPLETE

Detroit, April 10.—The freight tie
up is complete in this city as a result of the walkout of 2,000 yard switch-
men and the forcing into idleness of 1,500 yard engineers and Detroit
authorities are setting about in efforts to conserve fuel and food
against shortages that are bound to occur if the strike lasts a week.
John L. Lovett, manager of the Michigan manufacturers association, stated
that every important industry in the state will have to shut down with-
in six days if present conditions con-

London, April 10.—Another ambassadorial conference on the German situation was held at Premier Lloyd George's official residence in Downing street this morning. The French, Italian and Japanese ambassadors attended.

The above pictures help to visualize the seriousness of the situation in the Ruhr district in Germany. While Belgian troops are not moving with the French into the "non-military" zone they are prepared for any eventuality. Brown was arrested on a charge of stealing four razors and a revolver from George F. Roundtree, colored, and was given a fine of $50 and costs and sentenced to 30 days in the work house by Police Judge E. Dawson Smith Saturday morning. Brown was arrested for disorderly conduct before and had just worked out a 30 day sentence and a $25 fine two weeks ago.

DANGER OF FORCED WALKOUT THREATENS COMPLETE PARALYSIS

Everything Depends On Action Taken By Convention of
Railway Employees, Department of A. F. O. L.
In Kansas City Monday.

WILL EITHER APPROVE OR CONDEMN WALKOUT

Eight of the 16 Organizations Will Vote for General
Walkout; By Terms of Agreement Majority
Can Decide Entire Question.

Washington, April 10.—Confidential information received here today indicates danger of a forced strike extending to every railroad trade and craft and completely tying up every railroad system in the nation. Notwithstanding efforts of the railroad union chiefs to prevent it.

Everything depends on the action taken by the convention of the railway employees, department of the American Federation of Labor, which opens in Kansas City next Monday, made up of delegates from the switchmen's union of North America; the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, the six shop craft unions.

The convention will make either a declaration against the present strike and take disciplinary measures against the members who are precipitating or approve it.

By the terms of the pact entered into the 16 organizations in the railway union alliance, if a majority of the convention votes to strike, the remaining organizations are bound to act in concert.

The eight unions which will take part in the Kansas City convention have strike votes already to put into effect. If they decide to strike, they need only one other organization to join them to force a general strike. The radicals, it was learned today, are counting on either the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Railroad Shop Laborers or the Order of Railway Signalmen to join the eight in strike action. If to eight strike without majority support in the alliance, they will be outlawed by the other railroad organizations and it is not believed they are willing to incur this.

The leaders will try to impress upon the convention the futility of a general strike without sufficient funds to carry it on. The railroad alliance is trying to raise an immense defense fund and the program to be submitted to the Kansas City convention will suggest an assessment of $1 per month per member for such a fund.

RAIL SITUATION IN NEW YORK IS STILL CRITICAL

Tie Up On Steam Roads
Fairly Complete
Saturday.

SUBWAY AFFECTED

Only Perishable Freight
Moving; Disorders Are
Reported.

New York, April 10.—While the nation wide outlaw strike among railroad workers was apparently receding slightly in other parts of the country, it held New York tightly in its grip today. The tie up on the steam roads was fairly complete. No freight except perishable food was moving. Adding to the confusion the employees of the Hudson tubes, the subway system under the Hudson river, joined the strike at 5 o'clock this morning and all traffic immediately ceased.

Tens of thousands of commuters who daily use the tubes to reach the business section of New York, were compelled to use the railway ferry boats.

Only a few of these were running and the congestion and confusion became terrific. On both the Jersey side and the New York side the police reserves had to be called out to maintain order. No estimates of the number of men out in New York and environs. The tube men are a part of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen. They demand increases in wages of from 15 to 33 1-3 per cent. Every road entering New York and Jersey City is affected by the walkout. William J. Walsh, an assistant to W. G. Lee, head of the trainmen, is here endeavoring to persuade the strikers to return to work. He was hopeful today that the men could be made to "see the light" and return to work but road officials were pessimistic.

Should the strike continue even a few days New York's food supply will be badly depleted and the city facing a serious famine. Already thousands of cars of foodstuffs destined for New York have been held up at outside points because of the local strikes.

WILL ORGANIZE THE SCHOOLS FOR DRIVE FOR NEW HI SCHOOLS

A thorough organization of every public school in the city, and the Mothers' Circles, for the campaign to put across the $550,000 bond issue for the two new high schools will be undertaken by the Board of Education.

All civic organizations will also be asked to co-operate in the campaign. "We want to put the facts before the public so that the people can judge for themselves. We urge a thorough investigation in an unbiased way. We want every possible question answered. We want the people to have every opportunity to understand everything about the proposition clearly," said J. W. Santmyer, president of the school board, Saturday.

Members of the board of education will be chairmen for the schools and mothers' circles in the campaign which will take place ten days before the election. Mr. Kany will be chairman at Lincoln school; Mr. Little at Central school; Mr. LeSourd, McKinley school, and Mr. Spahr Spring Hill and Orient Hill.

HUNDREDS ON STRIKE IN COLUMBUS FEAR MORE WILL LEAVE

Columbus, O., April 10.—With about 100 Norfolk and Western railway switchmen on strike here this morning, prediction was made by J. F. Moore, terminal trainmaster, that trainmen employed on other roads here will walk out.

A meeting of all trainmen and switchmen working in local railroad yards will take place tonight when consideration will be given to "a retraction of demands made on members by grand lodge officers in connection with the strike in Chicago, and to consider questions pertaining to a legal call of a strike."

PALMER ILL AGAIN

Macon, Ga., April 10.—Attorney General Palmer was forced to cancel his speaking engagement at Waycross because of an attack of acute indigestion.

CLEVELAND MENACED BY GENERAL STRIKE OF 3,000 WORKERS

Cleveland, O., April 10.—Yard employees of nine railroads operating in this city, numbering about 3,000 men, will strike this afternoon at 2 o'clock unless wage demands which have been submitted to the local officials, are acted upon favorably. The demands are similar to those made in other cities.

Final action on whether passenger and mail service men should participate in the strike immediately was delayed today pending further discussion.

FRAUD AND PERJURY COMMITTED IN DIVORCE OF ACTRESS, CHARGED

Reno, Nev., April 10.—Fraud and perjury were committed in the obtaining by Mary Pickford of a divorce from Owen Moore at Minden, Nevada, it was charged today by Attorney General Leonard B. Fowler, of Nevada.

He announced that the complaint in which the state will make efforts to have the decree set aside will allege that the court which granted the divorce had no jurisdiction "because the plaintiff had no residence and the defendant was brought into Nevada as a matter of collusion."

"Fraud and perjury have been committed," said Mr. Fowler. "I am not prepared to say whether criminal action will be brought. My interest lies in getting the decree set aside, because the dignity of the state of Nevada is at stake."

The contemplated action, Mr. Fowler said, will be filed next week at Minden.

FREIGHT TIE UP IN DETROIT IS COMPLETE

Detroit, April 10.—The freight tie up is complete in this city as a result of the walkout of 2,000 yard switchmen and the forcing into idleness of 1,500 yard engineers and Detroit authorities are setting about in efforts to conserve fuel and food against shortages that are bound to occur if the strike lasts a week.

John L. Lovett, manager of the Michigan manufacturers association, stated that every important industry in the state will have to shut down within six days if present conditions continue.

EXERCISE AND REDUCTION
A well known doctor, who has specialized in methods of reduction, says that it is practically impossible to reduce weight by exercising.
This is usually because the additional exertion creates such an appetite that the woman eats enough to cover energy lost by the exercise.
But, exercise is a very important feature of any reduction program, not so much because of the fat that it burns up as because a certain amount of it is necessary to keep any one in healthy condition. The following exercises will really help make you either fat or thin—since hearty exercise is a general corrective and either too much fat or too little is considered disease.
First of all there are such outdoor sports as tennis or golf, or even fast walking with a long stride. These develop a remarkable number of muscles in the body. There is also either parlor or classic dancing; the latter, especially, will develop you all over and will make you supple and graceful.
Arm swinging exercises, exercises which cause you to bend from the waist, knee bending exercises, and that excellent one where you bend and touch the floor with the fingers while keeping the knees straight, are all to be recommended as a means of reducing as well as a means of putting flesh on undeveloped places.
You can even get an immense

Heart and Home Problems

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have been going with a young man of twenty-one to whom I was engaged. He was discharged from the army in July and I have kept steady company with him since then until a few weeks ago. When he came home from the army I was going with another fellow. He always acted as if he cared for me and since he was the only child and didn't have to pay board at home he always had plenty of spending money. I can't say that I loved him. We were only good friends. He always filled his dates with me and was always on time. He never went with another girl. But he was never in the army and my sister didn't like him for that reason and made me quit him to go with the soldier.
I never cared for the soldier and promised to marry him to please my sister. I never could have a good time while with him. He was not the kind of man to marry and I wasn't ready to get married.
The other fellow is in California spending the winter. He has written to me several times since we have quit, and I have answered but two of his letters. He tells me how homesick he is to see me and so on. He is coming back soon and says he wants to go with me. Do you think he cares for me, or do you think he is telling me things to get even with me for quitting him? Would you advise me to continue writing to him? He says he is lonesome and my letters cheer him.
TROUBLED.
You seem to care for the young man in spite of the fact that he did not go into the army. I think, therefore, that you should do as you please about continuing the correspondence and also about receiving him as a friend when he returns to this city. He probably cares for you and has no spiteful intentions.
Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a

LOCAL NEWSPAPER MAY BE FORCED TO SUSPEND

With a general walkout of switchmen threatening the country, not only a general tie up of railroads, but of all forms of business and commerce is imminent.

Freight service generally is now seriously impaired by the strike so far as it has gone. The yard tie up has already affected the Gazette and Republican, for with a supply of paper on hand that will last only until the latter part of next week a consignment sent from Canada and due to reach this city before this, is now stalled in the yards at Detroit, Michigan.

The paper was shipped from a Canadian paper manufacturing company, and was due to arrive in plenty of time before the present supply is exhausted. Information secured Saturday States that the consignment is now tied up in the railroad yards at Detroit, however, and with the yardmen there out on strike there is little possibility of its arriving here in time to stave off a paper famine for these papers.

In case this shipment of paper does not arrive, it was announced by the management of the Gazette and Republican Saturday that the papers will have to suspend the regular publication until the paper can be secured. Every effort will be made to stave off such a condition and to continue giving the paper to the patrons regularly, and in case suspension is necessary, at least some sort of publication will be printed for the patrons.

While the management hopes that such a condition will not exist, there is every reason to feel anxious over the situation, although efforts are now being made to forestall even a temporary suspension of the papers. It is believed that other papers all over the country are in the same plight as most of the print paper comes from Canada and with railroad connections tied up by the strike it is likely that many other publications will have to temporarily suspend, if the strike continues any length of time.

The cantata "The Resurrection and the Life," which was rendered by the choir of the First Presbyterian church last Sunday, will be given by the choir at the O. S. and S. O. MISS HYSLOP WEDS AT PARENTS' HOME

Xenia relatives of Mr. and Mrs. William Hyslop have received cards announcing the marriage of their daughter, Miss Frances, to Alfred H. Bowers, which took place Thursday evening at 6:30 at the Hyslop home on the Troy pike near Springfield. Previous to the wedding, Mrs. McClellan of Xenia, seated at the piano played "Narcissus," and then the bridegroom and bride entered the living room together, and were married in a bay window which was banked with white carnations, ferns and palms. Dr. Francis M. Fox, pastor of the Covenant Presbyterian church, read the single ring ceremony. The bride was lovely in her wedding robe of white tulle. She wore a veil which reached to the hem of her dress and was caught in her hair with a half wreath of sweet peas and ferns. She carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas.

The bride's table was decorated with pink roses and lighter with pink candles. Fifty persons witnessed the nuptials.

NOTHING WRONG EXCEPT "RUN DOWN"

Heart All Right—Lungs All Right But Blood Weak

No Energy Or Enthusiasm

That's When You Need Pepto-Mangan—The Red Blood Builder

When you feel weak and almost sick, see a doctor and find out what is wrong.

It may be a serious illness. But in many cases the doctor finds nothing really wrong except a general run-down condition due to the need of stronger richer blood.

For over thirty years physicians have recommended Gude's Pepto-Mangan to restore weakened blood to its normal healthy state.

Pepto-Mangan imparts to the blood the elements it needs to build up vigorous men and women. Children whose blood is impoverished become listless and pale and fail to romp. Pepto-Mangan creates a supply of nourishing red blood that makes the cheeks glow, the eyes sparkle and brings back the energy for play or studies.

Pepto-Mangan is obtainable in liquid or tablet form, whichever proves most convenient. Both forms possess identical medicinal qualities.

There is but one genuine Pepto-Mangan and that is "Gude's." Ask your druggist for "Gude's" and look for the name "Gude's" on the package. If it is not there it is not Pepto-Mangan.

DEATH CLAIMS MRS. ALICE BELLE WATSON

Mrs. Alice Belle Watson, wife of R. L. Watson, died at her home two and one half miles south of Xenia on the New Burlington pike shortly after twelve o'clock Friday afternoon. Death was due to complications but she had only been ill two days.

Mrs. Watson was before her marriage, Miss Alice Belle Hendershot. She was born near Lumberton and would have been 50 years of age had she lived until next June 7. Her marriage to Mr. Watson occurred 27 years ago and she had since made her home on the farm on which she died.

There are no children, but five sisters survive: Mrs. Clem Huffman, of near Wilmington, Mrs. Lola Linkhart, of near Lumberton, Mrs. Jennie Sliker of Wilmington, Mrs. Bertha Dadds, of New Vienna, and Mrs. Lenna DeHaven. A brother, Samuel Hendershot, lives at West Liberty.

BIEDERWOLF BEGINS CAMPAIGN SUNDAY

The joint Board of Elders of the First and Second United Presbyterian churches has completed arrangements for the great Biederwolf revival to begin next Sabbath.

At 10 a. m. and 7 p. m. Sabbath Dr. Biederwolf will speak at the First United Presbyterian church on East Market street, where the meetings will be continued each night of next week at 7:30 p. m.

The second week the meetings will be held in the Second United Presbyterian church and arrangements have been completed for meetings in the West End church on Sabbath afternoon, April 18 and 25. Following the wish of the evangelist there will be no meeting booked the first Sabbath afternoon.

EXECUTIVE BODY WILL PROMOTE BOND CAMPAIGN

An executive committee for the campaign for the $550,000 bond issue to erect two new high schools in Xenia was formed at a joint meeting of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce and the Xenia Board of Education held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms Friday night.

The committee consists of Dr. B. R. McClellan, chairman; Attorney J. Kenneth Williamson, vice chairman; L. C. Tinsley, secretary; Judge Marcus Shoup, Henry F. Farrell, J. D. Steele, Jr., J. A. Santmyer, Arthur Taylor, C. A. Weaver and John Beachmen.

This committee will be the policy making body of the campaign organization. The general campaign committee is subsidiary to the executive committee and will consist of members of the Central Publicity Committee, the Speakers Committee and the Lincoln Publicity Committee, the personnel of all three of which will be named shortly.

The plan for the campaign was thoroughly discussed at the meeting Friday night, and the official report of T. P. Kearns, of the state building inspector's office, who condemned both of the present high school buildings as unsafe and unsanitary last fall, was read. Copies of this report will be placed in the hands of every voter, according to plans of the committee, and with it will go pictures of the proposed building.

There will be a meeting of the publicity committees soon to make a detailed plan for action. A policy of absolute frankness was adopted by the executive committee at the meeting Friday night.

The Board of Education plans to enlist the aid of every school child in the city to help further the project so that Xenia may have a high school not better than in the average city of this size but just as good. The bond issue will be voted on April 27.

"I had stomach trouble and constipation very bad for a long time. I tried everything, but kept getting worse. I could hardly eat anything and my bowels wouldn't move unless I took a physic every day. I have a good appetite, my stomach trouble has left me, and my bowels are as regular as clock work."—Mrs. Mary Widner, 103 S. Court St., Sioux City, Iowa.

Mrs. Widner found out what all sufferers should know—that pills, salts and physics do not end constipation, but usually make it worse.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whose sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. Truly wonderful for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere. Guaranteed by Sayre & Hemphill.

In case this shipment of paper does not arrive, it was announced by the management of the Gazette and Republican Saturday that the papers will have to suspend the regular publication until the paper can be secured. Every effort will be made to stave off such a condition and to continue giving the paper to the patrons regularly, and in case suspension is necessary, at least some sort of publication will be printed for the patrons.

While the management hopes that such a condition will not exist, there is every reason to feel anxious over the situation, although efforts are now being made to forestall even a temporary suspension of the papers. It is believed that other papers all over the country are in the same plight as most of the print paper comes from Canada and with railroad connections tied up by the strike it is likely that many other publications will have to temporarily suspend, if the strike continues any length of time.

The cantata "The Resurrection and the Life," which was rendered by the choir of the First Presbyterian church last Sunday, will be given by the choir at the O. S. and S. O. Home chapel, Sunday afternoon at 2:30. While it is to be given on request of Home officials for the pleasure of the children at the institution, Xenia people who did not hear it last Sunday, may have the opportunity of attending the service at the Home.

The Parent-Teachers Association of McKinley school will meet at McKinley building Monday at 3:30 p. m. Mrs. Jno. W. Prugh, Pres.

MISS HYSLOP WEDES AT PARENTS' HOME

Xenia relatives of Mr. and Mrs. William Hyslop have received cards announcing the marriage of their daughter, Miss Frances, to Alfred H. Bowers, which took place Thursday evening at 6:30 at the Hyslop home on the Troy pike near Springfield.

Previous to the wedding, Mrs. McClellan of Xenia, seated at the piano played "Narcissus," and then the bridegroom and bride entered the living room together, and were married in a bay window which was banked with white carnations, ferns and palms. Dr. Francis M. Fox, pastor of the Covenant Presbyterian church, read the single ring ceremony. The bride was lovely in her wedding robe of white chereuse. She wore a veil which reached to the hem of her dress and was caught in her hair with a half wreath of sweet peas and ferns. She carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas.

The bride's table was decorated with pink roses and lighter with pink candles. Fifty persons witnessed the nuptials.

That's When You Need Pepto-Mangan—The Red Blood Builder

When you feel weak and almost sick, see a doctor and find out what is wrong.

It may be a serious illness. But in many cases the doctor finds nothing really wrong except a general run-down condition due to the need of stronger richer blood.

For over thirty years physicians have recommended Gude's Pepto-Mangan to restore weakened blood to its normal healthy state.

Pepto-Mangan imparts to the blood the elements it needs to build up vigorous men and women. Children whose blood is impoverished become listless and pale and fail to romp. Pepto-Mangan creates a supply of nourishing red blood that makes the cheeks glow, the eyes sparkle and brings back the energy for play or studies.

Pepto-Mangan is obtainable in liquid or tablet form, whichever proves most convenient. Both forms possess identical medicinal qualities.

There is but one genuine Pepto-Mangan and that is "Gude's." Ask your druggist for "Gude's" and look for the name "Gude's" on the package. If it is not there it is not Pepto-Mangan.

Mrs. Alice Belle Watson, wife of R. L. Watson, died at her home two and one half miles south of Xenia on the New Burlington pike shortly after twelve o'clock Friday afternoon. Death was due to complications but she had only been ill two days.

Mrs. Watson was before her marriage, Miss Alice Belle Hendershot. She was born near Lumberton and would have been 50 years of age had she lived until next June 7. Her marriage to Mr. Watson occurred 27 years ago and she had since made her home on the farm on which she died.

There are no children, but five sisters survive: Mrs. Clem Huffman, of near Wilmington, Mrs. Lola Linkhart, of near Lumberton, Mrs. Jennie Sliker of Wilmington, Mrs. Bertha Dodds, of New Vienna, and Mrs. Lenna DeHaven. A brother, Samuel Hendershot, lives at West Liberty.

Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the late home in charge of Rev. John White, of this city and burial will be made in Woodland cemetery here.

The joint Board of Elders of the First and Second United Presbyterian churches, has completed arrangements for the great Biederwolf revival to begin next Sabbath.

At 10 a. m. and 7 p. m. Sabbath Dr. Biederwolf will speak at the First United Presbyterian church on East Market street, where the meetings will be continued each night of next week at 7:30 p. m.

EXECUTIVE BODY WILL PROMOTE BOND CAMPAIGN

An executive committee for the campaign for the $550,000 bond issue to erect two new high schools in Xenia was formed at a joint meeting of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce and the Xenia Board of Education held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms Friday night.

The committee consists of Dr. B. R. McClellan, chairman; Attorney J. Kenneth Williamson, vice chairman; L. C. Tingley, secretary; Judge Marcus Shoup, Henry F. Farrell, J. D. Steele, Jr., J. A. Santmyer, Arthur Taylor, C. A. Weaver and John Beachman.

This committee will be the policy making body of the campaign organization. The general campaign committee is subsidiary to the executive committee and will consist of members of the Central Publicity Committee, the Speakers Committee, and the Lincoln Publicity Committee, the personnel of all three of which will be named shortly.

The plan for this campaign was thoroughly discussed at the meeting Friday night, and the official report of T. P. Kearns, of the state building inspector's office, who condemned both of the present high school buildings as unsafe and unsanitary last fall, was read. Copies of this report will be placed in the hands of every voter, according to plans of the committee, and with it will go pictures of the proposed building.

"I had stomach trouble and constipation very bad for a long time. Tried everything, but kept getting worse. I could hardly eat anything and my bowels wouldn't move unless I took a physic every day. I have to support myself and two children, yet I couldn't work. The first bottle of Milks Emulsion did wonders for me, and I have continued its use until now I feel fine and can work every day. I have a good appetite, my stomach trouble has left me, and my bowels are as regular as clock work."—Mrs. Mary Widner, 103 S. Court St., Sioux City, Iowa.

Mrs. Widner found out what all sufferers should know—that pills, salts and physics do not end constipation, but usually make it worse.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whose sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. Truly wonderful for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Fort Wayne, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere. Guaranteed by Sayre & Hemphill.

absolute frankness was adopted by the executive committee at the meeting Friday night.

The Board of Education plans to enlist the aid of every school child in the city to help further the project so that Xenia may have a high school not better than in the average city of this size but just as good. The bond issue will be voted on April 27.

AN OLD MAN SHOULD HAVE SOMETHING TO SHOW THAT HE HAS LIVED LONG, BESIDE HIS YEARS.

Some supposedly wise person once said: "To know how to grow old is the masterwork of wisdom." The inference is that we may grow old "good, bad or indifferently." But mankind in general is so lenient towards old people that they are usually rated "good."

Now there is our venerable friend Mr. James Jeffries, up in his nineties, and said to be a regular attendant at Sabbath school. Another old man whom we recall, twenty years ago, was Jacob Harner, (father of Chief Sol Harner,) who at 94 was still hoeing corn, walking two or three miles in the country to do so. And now, there is the venerable Rev. Dr. P. C. Prugh, (former pastor of the Reformed church here,) still said to be comfortable at 96 in his California home. But none of these could come up to beloved old Mother Bigger, (Mrs. J. B. Fleming's mother,) who at the remarkable age of 100, a few years ago, stood on her doorstep and recited to a large class of school children who had come to honor her, a poem which she had learned when seven years old.

Be kind to old people. In many cases they have infirmities that make life a burden. These they try to bear without complaining. Help them do so, by not becoming impatient with them. When the old come to the time when the grasshopper is supposed to be a burden and when desire fails, they need sympathy. But they want it to be genial and not effusive.

Some old people make the mistake of having nothing to do. To such, life is often a burden. Keep on working, to keep your mind off yourself. This is one of the best recipes for the old. And then this has a double benefit, it makes the aged feel that they are still of some use in the world. Help them help themselves.

We commend Harper's Magazine for recognizing in honorable ways that Dean of English Literature, William Dean Howells, now past 83, it's oft-time valuable contributor, and editor every month of its charming department, "The Editor's Easy Chair." Only a couple months ago he gave us a remarkable article of "Eighty Years and Past," as full of good sensible stuff on the pertinent subject, as an egg is full of nourishment. We have had the pleasure of several short letters from him in the last few years.

Old age may be wise in its own opinion, even if not in that of the community. It is mostly wise in declining new enterprises, for it has not the power or the time to execute them; wise in shrinking from difficulty, for it has not the strength to overcome it; wise in avoiding danger for it lacks the faculty to resist it.

Nothing is more disgraceful than that an old man should have nothing to show to prove that he has lived long, except his years.

Remember that, valuable as is the gift of speech, the gift of silence is much more valuable.

Do not expect too much from others, but remember that all have an evil nature, whose development we must expect, and which we should forbear and forgive, as we often desire forbearance and forgiveness ourselves.

A MODERN INSTANCE.

MY neighbor, Swatson, passing wise, believed in lots of exercise. He took long tramps through dales and dells, and swung huge clubs and iron balls, and all his frame was hard as a oak; he was a model for all males. And he would come to me and say, "Why do you loaf the livelong day? You are too fat for any use; for such a waist there's no excuse. Why don't you walk twelve miles or nine, and have a shapely form like mine?" And he is dead and in his grave, while I sit here and sing and rave. He was so blithe three weeks ago! Then came the flu and laid him low. The same disease mixed things with me, and lost its pep and had to flee. The rules of health are tiresome stuff; they make life's sledding doubly rough, and I have always let them slide, and I hang on, where health runs dead. I do not sit up, in distress, to count the symptoms I possess. A dozen scots and more than that have told me I'm too beastly fat; I ought to follow where they led—and I hang on, and they are dead. I eat too much, and I despise all modern forms of exercise; and still I live and write my verse, while wiser men engage the hearse.

PERSONAL WORK OF EVANGELISM KEYNOTE OF AFTERNOON SESSION OF COUNTY CHURCH CONFERENCE

The Friday afternoon session of the Greene County Conference of the Interchurch world movement was called to order in the First Methodist Church by the chairman, the Rev. Warren H. Denison, at 2:30 o'clock, before a gathering of over 200 people. The opening prayer was offered by the Rev. J. D. Herron, Rector of Christ Episcopal Church. After announcing that the gathering at the church on Easter Day was the greatest of all modern history, the chairman introduced the Rev. Dr. Shenk, of Cincinnati, who spoke on the plan of the movement for evangelism, which was to use every man and woman in the church in personal effort to bring non-church members into the church, the work to culminate on Pentecost Sunday, May 23 making use of the Pentecostal season. He pleaded that a Christian man must not stop with saving his own soul, that he must be a soul savor, if he is to enter into the full joy of his own salvation, that he must launch out into deep waters and risk his own soul for the sake of others. He claimed that it is more necessary that every man in the church should be fired with the spirit of personal evangelism, than that "Billy Sundays" should be multiplied throughout the land. He told a story of the dark days of the war when a general was lost, who found in the darkness of the night what he thought was a sign board, but when he flashed a light on it saw only a rude figure of the "Crucified," with the inscription below: "Our only help." And there is the only help for the world today.

The chairman then introduced the heads of the special departments of the work in hand, and these men then stood up that the audience might know that they have in charge the departments of (a) spiritual resources, (b) life service, (c) missionary education, and (d) stewardship.

The Rev. Justin N. Green then spoke on the message of the movement, emphasizing (a) call to more effectual spirit of intercession, and the need to pray for a bruised and bleeding world; (b) the reestablishment of the family altar, and he recommended certain books of devotion for parents who might need them; (c) stewardship—the giving back to God what belongs to him, and at least a tenth; (d) missionary education and the benefit of attending summer conferences; (e) need of life recruits—50,000 vacant pulpits in the land—100,000 new workers needed in the next five years—1600 needed now—often parents stood in the way of their children going.

The Rev. J. V. Robinson then presented the survey of Greene county as now made. Population of county outside of Xenia, 21,026, and church membership of 6,759. Only 186 new converts brought in during the year—35 church members to "win one." There are 21 resident pastors in county, receiving an average salary of $1,233, lowest $650, highest $1,890. There are 57 white protestant churches in the county, seven colored, and three Roman Catholic. The crying need is a resident pastor for each church.

The Rev. Mr. Shank spoke again and on the general survey of the country, of the loss to the church of vast numbers of Sunday School pupils, and of lapsed members. He spoke on the overlapping of parishes, but said that it was not universal in Cincinnati with only one English speaking Protestant church.

The Rev. Mr. Clippinger then spoke on the world survey, and claimed that the "faraway look" was the only cure for a dead parish. He took up in order the world's mission fields: China, India, Africa, Japan, and Latin America, where millions have never felt the touch of the helping Christ. The need of India is to know God as a Father; the issue in Africa is between Mohammedanism and Christianity, and in Japan between Christian democracy and autocratic imperialism.

He pleaded that we make use of the inventions which have drawn the world close together, and give them a Christian work to do. There were over 300 present from all parts of the county, and the meeting closed with a new era for the kingdom of God in Greene County when next Whitsunday, or the feast of Pentecost, arrives.

William Saylor acted the part of Duke Brackhear, the "Priso" crook, with a degree of perfection that almost made the audience believe that the notorious criminal on whose skirts hung the crimes of many decades, was figuring before them in person. Frederick Spahr in the role of Ezekiah Bugg, the village liar, kept the audience in convulsions of laughter throughout the performance. The Chinese character Yon Kee, by James Turner, made a great hit with the audience, his acting being of a high order considering his years. Lawrence Anthony in his war paint and his beads, and dressed from head to foot in Indian costume, ably represented Big Elk, and looked every inch an Indian chief.

Argo-Phosphate, the New Herbal Remedy, Now Endorsed by Local People.

If the digestive organs are not properly performing the work which nature has assigned to them, then nutrition, which is absolutely essential to the recovery of other diseased parts, will be lacking and there can be no permanent relief. When bodily nutrition is normal, the stomach carries the food, the blood absorbs and distributes the nourishment to the different parts of the body, causing the various organs to properly perform their functions.

Nature has provided a remedy in the ingredients of Argo-Phosphate, the new herbal stomach remedy, which is now being introduced here. It is purely vegetable and its vitalizing, corrective and reconstructive qualities are so pronounced that beneficial results are noticed from the first day. That this is true, it is only necessary to listen to the statements made daily by local people who have given Argo-Phosphate a fair trial and have been benefitted thereby.

It is dispensed by Sohn's drug store.

Some supposedly wise person once said: "To know how to grow old is the masterwork of wisdom." The inference is that we may grow old "good, bad or indifferently." But mankind in general is so lenient towards old people that they are usually rated "good."

Now there is our venerable friend Mr. James Jeffries, up in his nineties, and said to be a regular attendant at Sabbath school. Another old man whom we recall, twenty years ago, was Jacob Hamer, (father of Chief Sol. Harner,) who at 94 was still hoeing corn, walking two or three miles in the country to do so. And now, there is the venerable Rev. Dr. P. C. Prugh, (former pastor of the Reformed church here,) still said to be comfortable at 96 in his California home. But none of these could come up to beloved old Mother Bigger, (Mrs. J. B. Fleming's mother,) who at the remarkable age of 100, a few years ago, stood on her doorstep and recited to a large class of school children who had come to honor her, a poem which she had learned when seven years old.

Be kind to old people. In many cases they have infirmities that make life a burden. These they try to bear without complaining. Help them do so, by not becoming impatient with them. When the old come to the time when the grasshopper is supposed to be a burden and when desire fails, they need sympathy. But they want it to be genial and not effusive.

Some old people make the mistake of having nothing to do. To such, life is often a burden. Keep on working, to keep your mind off yourself. This is one of the best recipes for the old. And then this has a double benefit, it makes the aged feel that they are still of some use in the world. Help them help themselves.

We commend Harper's Magazine for recognizing in honorable ways that Dean of English Literature, William Dean Howells, now past 83, it's off-time valuable contributor, and editor every month of its charming department, "The Editor's Easy Chair." Only a couple months ago he gave us a remarkable article of "Eighty Years and Past," as full of good sensible stuff on the pertinent subject, as an egg is full of nourishment. We have had the pleasure of several short letters from him in the last few years.

Old age may be wise in its own opinion, even if not in that of the community. It is mostly wise in declining new enterprises, for it has not the power or the time to execute them; wise in shrinking from difficulty, for it has not the strength to overcome it; wise in avoiding danger for it lacks the faculty to resist it.

Nothing is more disgraceful than that an old man should have nothing to show to prove that he has lived long, except his years.

TO MAKE A HAPPY HOME.

Learn to govern yourselves, and to be gentle and patient. Guard your tempers, especially in seasons of ill-health, irritation and trouble, and soften them by a sense of your own shortcomings and errors.

Never speak or act until you have thought well over your words or acts.

Remember that, valuable as is the gift of speech, the gift of silence is much more valuable.

Do not expect too much from others, but remember that all have an evil nature, whose development we must expect, and which we should forbear and forgive, as we often desire forbearance and forgiveness ourselves.

Never retort a sharp or angry word. It is the second word that makes the quarrel.

Beware of the first disagreement.

Learn to speak in a gentle tone of voice.

Learn to say kind and pleasant things whenever an opportunity affords.

Study the character of each, and sympathize with all in their troubles, however small.

Do not neglect little things, if they affect the comfort of others in the smallest degree.

Avoid moods and pets and fits of sulking.

Rippling Rhymes
by Walt Mason

A MODERN INSTANCE

MY neighbor, Swatson, passing wise, believed in lots of exercise. He took long tramps through dales and dells, and swung huge clubs and iron bells, and all his frame was hard as a nail; he was a model for all males. And he would come to me and say, "Why do you loaf the livelong day? You are too fat for any use; for such a waist, there's no excuse. Why don't you walk twelve miles or nine, and have a shapely form like mine?" And he is dead and in his grave, while I sit here and sing and rave. He was so blithe three weeks ago! Then came the flu and laid him low. The same disease mixed things with me, and lost its pep and had to flee. The rules of health are tiresome stuff; they make life's sledding doubly rough, and I have always let them slide, and I hang on, where health runs wild. I do not sit up, in distress, to count the symptoms I possess. A dozen scouts and more than that, have told me I'm too beastly fat; I ought to follow where they led—and I hang on, and they are dead. I eat too much, and I despise all modern forms of exercise; and still I live and write my verse, while wiser men engage the hearse.

The Friday afternoon session of the Greene County Conference of the Inter-Church World Movement was called to order in the First Methodist Church by the chairman, the Rev. Warren H. Denison, at 2:30 o'clock, before a gathering of over 200 people. The opening prayer was offered by the Rev. J. D. Herron, Rector of Christ Episcopal Church. After announcing that the gathering at the church on Easter Day was the greatest of all modern history, the chairman introduced the Rev. Dr. Sheak, of Cincinnati, who spoke on the plan of the movement for evangelism, which was to use every man and woman in the church in personal effort to bring non-church members into the church, the work to culminate on Pentecost Sunday, May 23 making use of the Pentecostal season. He pleaded that a Christian man must not stop with saving his own soul, that he must be a soul saver, if he is to enter into the full joy of his own salvation, that he must launch out into deep waters and risk his own soul for the sake of others. He claimed that it is more necessary that every man in the church should be fired with the spirit of personal evangelism, than that "Billy Sundays" should be multiplied throughout the land. He told a story of the dark days of the war when a general was lost, who found in the darkness of the night what he thought was a sign board, but when he flashed a light on it saw only a rude figure of the "Crucified," with the inscription below: "Our only help." And there is the only help for the world today.

The chairman then introduced the heads of the special departments of the work in hand, and these men then stood up that the audience might know that they have in charge the departments of (a) spiritual resources, (b) life service, (c) missionary education, and (d) stewardship.

The Rev. Justin N. Green then spoke on the message of the movement, emphasizing (a) call to more effectual spirit of intercession, and the need to pray for a bruised and bleeding world; (b) the reestablishment of the family altar, and he recommended certain books of devotion for parents who might need them; (c) stewardship—the giving back to God what belongs to him, and at least a tenth; (d) missionary education and the benefit of attending summer conferences; (e) need of life recruits—50,000 vacant pulpits in the land—100,000 new workers needed in the next five years—1600 needed now—often parents stood in the way of their children going.

The Rev. J. V. Robinson then presented the survey of Greene County as now made. Population of county outside of Xenia, 21,026, and church membership of 6,759. Only 156 new converts brought in during the year—35 church members to "win one." There are 21 resident pastors in county, receiving an average salary of $1,233, lowest $650, highest $1,800. There are 57 white protestant churches in the county, seven colored, and three Roman Catholic. The crying need is a resident pastor for each church.

The Rev. Mr. Shank spoke again and on the general survey of the county, of the loss to the church of vast numbers of Sunday School pupils, and of lapsed members. He spoke on the overlapping of parishes, but said that it was not universal, that there is one whole sphere mile in Cincinnati with only one English speaking Protestant church.

The Rev. Mr. Clippinger then spoke on the world survey, and claimed that the "far-away look" was the only cure for a dead parish. He took up in order the world's mission fields: China, India, Africa, Japan, and Latin America, where millions have never felt the touch of the helping Christ. The need of India is to know God as a Father; the issue in Africa is between Mohammedanism and Christianity, and in Japan between Christian democracy and autocratic imperialism.

He pleaded that we make use of the inventions which have drawn the world close together, and give them a Christian work to do.

There were over 300 present from all parts of the county, and the meeting presided a new era for the kingdom of God in Greene County when next Whitsunday, or the feast of Pentecost, arrives.

It goes without saying that the talent was carefully selected and trained. Each of the twelve characters fitting into their respective places well.

and experienced "Limb of the Law." James Finley, as Paul Guillian, paymaster of the ranch, who later became addicted to drink and tempted to disgrace himself through the influence of evil companions, took care of his part in an up to date style. William Saylor acted the part of Duke Blackshear, the "Frisco" crook, with a degree of perfection that almost made the audience believe that the notorious criminal on whose skirts hung the crimes of many decades, was figuring before them in person. Frederick Spahr in the role of Ezekiah Bugg, the village liar, kept the audience in convulsions of laughter throughout the performance. The Chinese character Yon Kee, by James Turner, made a great hit with the audience, his acting being of a high order considering his years. Lawrence Anthony in his war paint and his beads, and dressed from head to foot in Indian costume, ably represented Big Elk, and looked every such an Indian chief.

Clyde Gibbons acted well the part of Grizzly Grimm, and his tall commanding figure clad in becoming costume for the occasion, made him look almost the exact counterpart of Buffalo Bill. The leading lady, Marguerite Moore, was entrusted to Ruth Dinwiddie, a local actress of some renown. Miss Dinwiddie's ever changing expression of countenance to suit the different stages of the play, sometimes wreathed in the sweetest of smiles, and from that to expressions of sadness, amazement, disgust and fright, caused many such expressions as "wonderful acting," "superbly rendered" and etc. Dorothy Walton acting the part of Mrs. Petunia Buggs, wife of the champion Har, demonstrated in true acting style, down to the most minute detail the absolute unabated control over her shiftless, loafing Rhy. Van Winkle husband. Hazel Carpenter in her presentation of Corallie Blackshear, sister of the "Frisco" crook and would-be destroyer of a trusted employee's good name (the paymaster), horrified her hearers by a series of crimes almost surpassing those perpetrated by the infamous Jezebel, and winding up her act with the murder and robbery of the new paymaster, Ezekiah Bugg. Fawn Afraid, the Indian maiden, was creditably played by Bertha Snell, whose glittering costume, graceful ways and well delivered sentences won the applause and admiration of all present.

Spinach and Nut Salad—A small quantity of cold boiled spinach cut fine, half of an apple sliced thin, pimento cheese, mix with mayonnaise and serve.

Rice in Dried Beef Cases—Take left over boiled rice (cooked a little longer than usual so grains are very soft), mix with one beaten egg, form into sausage shape roll and wrap each roll in a slice of dried beef, pin with a toothpick, trim off the ends to look nice.

Fry in butter substitute, remove to platter, make a white sauce on the skillet, pour over rolls and serve.

Stewed Dried Peaches—Pour hot water over one-half pound dried peaches, covering them all over, let stand a half hour, then rub all the skins off, perhaps a few will not come off but most of them will.

Add fresh water to the skinned peaches and boil slowly one hour, keeping them well covered with water, then add three-quarters cup of sugar and boil fifteen minutes longer.

GAVE HER STRENGTH

Mrs. Miller Says That is What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did For Her—Read Her Letter—

Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was run down and nervous, could not rest at night and was more tired in the morning than when I went to bed. I have two children, the youngest three months old, and it was drudgery to care for them as I felt so irritable and generally worn out. From lack of rest and appetite my baby did not get enough nourishment from my milk so I started to give him two bottle feedings a day. After taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt like a new woman, full of life and energy. It is a pleasure to care for my children and I am very happy with them and feel fine. I nurse my baby exclusively again, and can't say too much for your medicine."—Mrs. A. L. MILLER, 2633 E. 24th St., Minneapolis, Minn.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, it is not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help this woman it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner.

GERRY GROWS FIDGETY

Chapter 100
Now that the flat was in order, all so clean in its coat of new paint, there was very little for me to do. Time began to hang heavily on my hands. I fretted at the inaction— inwardly, of course, I developed nerves, the kind that won't let one sit still, but drive aimlessly from one thing to another.

"Do let us go somewhere," I said rather impatiently one night, after Robert had ensconced himself in an easy chair with his pipe.

"This is the nicest place to go I know of," he said settling a little lower in the chair.

"That's all right for you to say! You aren't here all day as I am. I feel as if I should fly if I don't get out."

Robert rose at once.

"I guess I have been a bit selfish, Gerry. Forgive me, dear. I have been so happy to come home to this, that I hadn't realized it was stay at home for you. Where shall we go?"

"Oh, for a walk, the movies, Mary's—anywhere so I can get rid of this nervousness."

"Suppose we walk toward Murphy's. Then if you get tired we can take a car. Perhaps the walk will do you good—it's a lovely night."

I walked so fast he called "Whoa!" once or twice. It seemed almost as if running would make me feel better.

"It's pretty lonesome there alone all day after being in the shop so long, isn't it, Gerry?"

"If I had more to do—I try to read, but I can't seem to keep my mind on anything very long. I could sew, but we won't really need anything more, and I hate to spend the money."

"You must get out more. Visit the girls during the day."

"I might do that occasionally. Someway, Robert, I have never enough of that. I never have been able to go places in the daytime, it never occurred to me, that now."

"Then, because he seemed worried, I added:

"Don't fret over me, Robert. I have a fit of nerves, that's all."

"That's enough, I wish I earned more, Gerry, so you could go to a matinee occasionally, or take the girls out to lunch, and the other things women do to pass the time. Perhaps I will soon. I know old Burch is pleased with me."

"Of course he is! Haven't you increased his business?"

We walked all the way to Murphy's. When Jane offered me a chair I sank into it gladly. I was tired. It was a long walk, but I was not nearly so nervous as when we started.

"We can't stay long," I said when Carson proposed bridge. "I only came out to walk off a feeling of nervousness."

"Then come on to my room, and leave the boys to smoke. I want you to tell me what to do to my hat. I have worn it several times so I can't return it, but neither Carson or I like it—he says it makes me look old," Jane begged me.

"Carson is right! You look five years older in it," I said as she put it on. "Here, give it to me, some scissors, now pins and needle and thread." For half an hour we chatted while I ripped, bent, pinned. Then after trying the effect of what I had done on Jane, I threaded the needle and made my work permanent.

"How do you like it now, Carson?" Jane went back to the boys. I followed in her wake.

"That's something like, Gerry! It was an awful failure before." Then "Mary should be here—she would say the fairies had been to work again."

"Oh, Gerry has something in the ends of her fingers the rest of us lack. Everything she touches, turns out well. I am so grateful, Gerry, I couldn't afford not to wear it, and yet I fairly hated myself every time I put it on."

"Better collect before you go," Carson teased. We may not be good pay. Travelling artists should have a pay on delivery sign with them. How's that for an idea, Gerry! I'm a travelling artist in hats! I'm a genius to conceive such a thing, eh Robert?"

Tomorrow—A Chance Meeting.

Olympus Pudding—Make cornstarch blanc mange; separate into four parts, placing white on bottom of mold; stir into second part table-spoon of chocolate and pour on top of white; color and flavor third part with fruit, using diced pineapple, and lastly your fourth over after adding yolk of egg.

When cold cut into slices and serve with whipped cream and walnuts chopped fine.

Spanish Salad—Select ripe but not soft bananas and cut into thin slices with a silver knife. Shell English walnuts to one-third the quantity of bananas. Press nuts through a grinder or chop fine. Mix fruit and nuts lightly and heap them on a platter covered with crisp lettuce leaves. Pour mayonnaise dressing over the whole, taking care that it is seasoned sharply with cayenne pepper.

Molded Apples—Six tart apples, one-half cup cold water, two teaspoons gelatine, two cups sugar, juice of one lemon, two cups boiling water.

Soak the gelatine in cold water for five minutes. Make a syrup of the sugar and boiling water. Pare and core the apples and cook in the syrup; turn them often.

GAVE HER STRENGTH

Mrs. Miller Says That is What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did For Her—Read Her Letter—

Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was run down and nervous, could not rest at night and morning when I went to bed. I have two children, the youngest three months old, and it was a misery to care for them as I felt so irritable and generally worn out. From lack of rest and appetite my baby did not get enough nourishment from my milk so I started to give him two bottle feedings a day. After taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt like a new woman, full of life and energy. It is a pleasure to care for my children and I am very happy with them and feel fine. I nurse my baby exclusively again, and can't say too much for your medicine."

—Mrs. A. L. MILLER, 2533 E. 24th St., Minneapolis, Minn.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, it is not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help this woman it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner.
